

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

No. 11.

RESOLUTION of respect to the memory of Hon. Wm. C. P. Breckinridge.

To the Senate and House of Representatives of Kentucky:

We, the undersigned committee appointed to draft suitable resolutions concerning the life and death of Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge, would respectfully report the following, and recommend its adoption:

Colonel William Cabell Preston Breckinridge fell asleep and was gathered to the fathers on Saturday, November 19, 1904. A great man has fallen in Israel, and a mighty leader is no more. Soldier, statesman, orator, lawyer, thinker, publicist, leader, deeply devoted to humanity, loving Kentucky with the intense passion of a faithful son, and our common country with the dauntless devotion born of a prophetic vision of its boundless possibilities; profoundly learned in all its history of the past, deeply conscious of the pressing duties and vexing problems of the day, with an ever brightening faith and confidence in the unborn future, he looked always upwards and forward, without dread or doubt, with no misgivings.

His heart beat for humanity, and his voice and pen spoke words of cheer, encouragement and hope, pointing always to higher purpose and nobler ideal. Of dauntless courage, magnetic presence, broadly cultured, his eloquence stirred the soul and moved the mind. Too honest for sophistry, too strong for demagogic, too clear minded for deceit, always and every where he was the fearless and intrepid leader who followed the clear line of duty as he had light to see it.

In the army following the flag of a doomed Confederacy, at the bar, and in the council chamber of a common country, as soldier, lawyer, public man his influence was large and potent, his ideals high and lofty, and his intellectuality, dominant and transcendent. Representing the best blood of many illustrious names, he measured up to the full standard and added fadeless luster to the names he bore, therefore,

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

That, in his death, the Commonwealth and the Nation have lost a great man and a useful citizen who was faithful unto death. Be it further,

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread at length on the journals of the two Houses and that an enrolled copy be sent to the family of the deceased.

No. 12.

RESOLUTION of respect to the memory of Hon. J. W. McCain, late a member of the House of Representatives of Kentucky.

WHEREAS, Hon. J. W. McCain, late a Representative of Trimble and Oldham counties in this General Assembly, has, since its last regular session, been removed by death,

Resolved, By the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That by his death the General Assembly has lost a wise, active, useful and esteemed member; his county and community a genial, patriotic and loyal citizen; his widow and children a generous and affectionate husband and father, and his fellow soldiers in the Confederate cause, a brave and devoted comrade.

“The records of the General Assembly wherein are registered his acts—notably the ‘McCain Tobacco Bill,’ and other useful measures, testify to the wisdom and efficiency of his services in both houses of this body.

“To us, his fellow members, his absence causes heartfelt grief; to his family, unfailing sorrow, and we and they shall keep his memory green.

“We bow in humble submission to this decree of the All Wise. As He gave to the departed the boon and the burden of life, so it was His to cut life’s brittle thread at the appointed time.

“We therefore commit his memory to the keeping of a people, grateful for his life and for his public services—his body goes to its mother dust, ‘as the dew drop slips into the sea;’ his immortal part we commit to the Giver, truthfully reflecting, that, though,

“‘We know not where God’s Islands lift
Their fronded palms in air;
We only know we cannot drift,
Beyond his loving care.’

"The heart-felt sympathy of the General Assembly is tendered to his bereaved family.

"Resolved, That these resolutions be spread at large upon the journal of the House of Representatives, and an engrossed copy of same be presented to his family as a token of the respect of his colleagues in the General Assembly."
